Dear Sir:

I understand you have recently compiled a book of the old California songs. As one interested in this beautiful land of ours, I would like a copy. How and where can I obtain one?

Yours very truly

Dear Mr. Campbell:-

I am glad you are interested in the "Songs of Old California." They are a lovely lot, and are finding a warm welcome in this renaissance among the newcomers. They had been almost forgotten -- never before published -- but they are meeting a warm welcome. They are already in the 4th thousand.

The enclosed circular gives you the information you desire.

Yours very truly,

Mr. George E. Campbell,
